Two Seeking SGA Presidency; Vote Set April 14

Learned From The Chimes

LIFE IN THE DORM

"I wake up every morning and say to myself, 'Boswell smells like a pig'—and he do, he do. I never really could understand the Bohemian cast on life, but then I was cut out for the peasantry from the start. Such a position has advantages, however, one of them being that you never have to wonder just how you stack up socially—you're always at the bottom. Actually the Bohemian is the peasant who pretends he doesn't care."

Big campus election coming up and the rumors are that political string-pulling is setting the stage. The Collegian makes it a point not to take a stand in campus politics, so I have no comments on the subject, other than that I know what goes on, and you do, too. If you don't know what goes, try to find out, huh?

Opened a box of Havanas—the five-cent variety—and found a card which had Fido Castrel's picture on it, and read: "No hay moros en la casta." Free translation: "Cuba is a crazy pad, man."

"Daddy, Daddy—I don't want to go to Europe."

"Shut up, son, and keep swimming."

April Fool's Day—A great event around here which gives legal license to tell all sorts of lies. Where the idea originated I can't say but a lot of people don't wait for April First to indulge. Wonder what it would be like to have a day upon which everyone was required to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but? Chaotic? You'd better believe it would be. Can you girls imagine asking your roommate, "How do I look this morning?" and receiving the reply, "You look lousy, you stupid jerk." It's a pity, I say.

Futuramic—one of these days not too far in the future, I look to see Jax with a new either pre-journalism or journalism course of study offered on the menu. We have the quality of instructors required for such a line of study and quite a few students who feel that they might be better off majoring in journalism rather than secondary education and English. Perhaps some of the more energetic profs will get together and promote a journalism department. At least, that's the subcurrent of prevailing rumormongering.

Jaxmen Slate 'J-Day' Game On Thursday

J-Day will be celebrated at Jacksonville this Thursday, April 9. The festivities will start at approximately 7:30 p. m., when the Reds will play the Whites in an exciting football game. The admission to the game will be twenty-five cents.

For the first time in the history of J. S. C., trophies will be awarded for the "Most Outstanding Back" and the "Most Outstanding Lineman" on our Fighting Gamecock football team. These winners will be picked by a committee composed of three coaches, three faculty members and two students. The trophies will be presented by the Student Government Association.

Tryouts for cheerleaders will be held during the game and during the half, which will also be a new addition to the J-Day festivities.

Following the football game, there will be a sock hop in Chat-Em Inn. We hope to see all of you there.

Talent Show Is Big Success

One of the most successful talent shows possible was presented by the senior class April 2. Doing a remarkable job as masters of ceremony were Clark Gable, Sonny Roberts and Hal Hayes.

Buddy Simpkins and his combo won the $10 first prize in the group competition, playing "Beat Me Daddy Eight To The Bar", "Tea For Two Cha-Cha", and "Honky-Tonk".

The first-place winner in the individual competition was Ross Caldwell singing "Chances Are" and "Answer Me, My Love". Tom Camp won second place as he performed beautifully on the piano.

Other participants were Bill Gardner, Linda Turrentine, Janice Williams, Bruce Thornhill, Cary Cook, David Thompson, Judy Chastain (Daugette Annex), Masque and Wig skit, Rita Grizzell, and Linda Bryan.

Health Notice

The college nurse has informed us that there has recently been an outbreak of infected throats on the campus; therefore the old health habits should be practiced to avoid further contagion.

RUNNING A GOOD RACE—Pictured above are the two candidates for SGA President, Charles McCain and Joe Garner. Both young men are well qualified for the position as they have been active in many campus activities.

Sophomore - Senior Dance To Be Event Of April 22

On Wednesday, April 22, one of the more exciting events of the school year will take place. The Sophomore-Senior Dance will be presented in the College Gym.

Stan Kenton and his great band will furnish the music for the dance, which will be semi-formal. Flowers, of course, are optional. The dance will start at 8:00 p. m., and the tickets will be $4.00 in advance and $4.50 at the door.

In spite of the hazards to which jazz has been subjected in its growth, no longer does it have to suffer from an obligation to tin-pan alley. It has served its apprenticeship and is blossoming into maturity independently while spreading to the far corners of the globe. Along with it has come Stan Kenton and his interminable crusade for the betterment of the music he sincerely loves and believes in. With constant effort, impregnable conditions and a fertile brain ever unleashing new musical ideas, Stan Kenton has, in little over a decade, grown from obscurity in music to the point where the entire business and all followers of modern music look to him to set the pace.

Although Stan considers himself a native Californian, and it was there he began laying the foundation upon which his musical future was to be firmly constructed, Kenton was born in Wichita, Kansas, one cold February 19, 1912. The earlier days of his life were not unlike the average boyhood, with the exception of moving around

Religious Event To Be Marked

A campus-wide religious emphasis will be observed here on the campus, April 28-29. The convocation speaker will be Dr. J. L. Buchanan of Birmingham. The theme of the emphasis will be, "Decisions—Destination." There will be several resource speakers visiting the campus who will be representing the various denominations and churches. The resource speakers will hold discussion groups and will be available for private consultation with students who desire their help. The plans are not complete at the present, however, the committee is developing plans rapidly.

During the last few days, the halls of Bibb Graves, the entrances of all buildings, and the dormitory lounges have come to resemble a gallery for a poster contest. There is a reason behind all of this—and that is the campaign for SGA offices for next year. The campaigns are now well underway with promises of cooperation, improvement, and sincere effort on the part of each candidate. All of the races promise to be enthusiastic, clean, friendly, and close!

Joe Garner and Charles McCain will vie for the office of president; Don McMillian was the only qualifying entry in the vice-president spot; Tressie Smith and Janice Williams will be competitors for the secretarial position; and Gerald Dupree, Franklin Estes, Bill Lazenby, and Bob Taylor are seeking the title of treasurer. This is the list who qualified and here in a brief character sketch and campaign intentions of each candidate as collected by the COLLEGIAN:

Joe Garner: Joe is a junior from Hartselle. He is seeking a double major in Physical Education and History. Joe has been active as vice-president of Pannell Hall, vice-president of Student NEA, a member of the Ushers Club, intramural sports, as cheerleader, and president of the junior class this year. Last summer he served as treasurer of the SGA. He was a class favorite for the sophomore class and has been featured in "Spotlight".

His platform consists of:

1. A training table, with possibly one floor of the dormitory reserved for athletes.
2. A bulletin board, comfortable furniture, juke box and telephone for the commuters.
3. Remodeling of Chat 'Em Inn with air-conditioning, new booths, and a telephone.
4. New uniforms and a chance for the cheerleaders to attend a cheerleading clinic.
5. Lighter tennis courts.
6. Soft music in the library.
7. Automatic dryers for the girls' dormitories.
8. Get the chimes in working order again.

Joe promise to do his best as president to foster more school spirit, promote more week-end activities, and improve the intramural program.

Charles McCain: Charles is a senior majoring in Music Education with a minor in English. He is a native of Roanoke. He has been active as a member of the Ushers Club, Phi Mu Alpha, the International House Program, Kappa Phi Kappa, and he has participated in the band and chorus for four years.

EDITORIALS

It's Your Election

"How is your campaign going?" is a question which is continually being asked candidates for SGA offices. Each candidate modestly replies, "I don't know." Actually no one knows a better answer to the question. No doubt this particular election is the first in many years at JSC that the vote could go either way election day. Each candidate is well qualified for the office that he seeks, so may the best man win.

There was a rumble over the campus when it was discovered that the SGA constitution contained certain qualification rules which automatically disqualified some prospective candidates. A valid constitution cannot change its rules to fit the qualifications of an individual. The SGA constitution was drawn up for the protection and benefit of all students at JSC. A constitution such as this cannot be broken . . . however, it can and may be amended when necessary. Of course, this would take time, but if the rules for qualifications of SGA officers are not desirable or functional, the student body has the right to object. After all, the SGA is merely a representative group of the student body—its purpose is to rule logically on the matters which concern the whole student body.

The only ethical attitude in this election is to frown upon "mud-slinging." Remember, vote wisely on April 14. Jacksonville needs a genuinely enthusiastic atmosphere to prevail over the student body, SGA, and administration. We have big plans for Jacksonville State College—with cooperation and strong leaders, we will make the mark.

SGA Meeting Enlightening

One of the highlights of the last meeting of the Student Government Association was the discussion of cheerleader elections. Several suggestions were offered as to time and place. The final decision, however, was that the candidates for cheerleader should give demonstrations at the annual "J-Day" game which will be played Thursday, April 9.

The candidates will lead cheers during the first half and the actual try-outs will be held at the half. The voting will be held on the same days as the SGA elections. This is planned to get a better percentage of votes from the student body, and it is hoped that everybody will participate.

A project that has been mentioned to the SGA recently is that of erecting a lighted cross on the mountain by the fire tower. The committee reported that they had checked on the details of one which was erected at a Methodist youth camp. This particular cross was thirty-six feet high above the ground, and each arm extended twelve feet. It was made of eight-inch steel and outlined with neon. The cost of this cross was approximately $650. It can be seen for about 40 miles when lighted. The SGA hopes to create an interest among the different religious groups in town and see if they would like to undertake, or at least help, with a project of this kind.

Richard announced that there can be no posters placed anywhere on the second floor of Bibb Graves. They can be placed on both first and third floors and in the gym and science building. However, he explained that on the day of the election every sign must come down before 8 o'clock. This is a request of the election committee in an effort to improve the voting system.

The SGA urges a good, clean but enthusiastic campaign for offices and full cooperation from the student body. The candidates are eager to serve you, so it's your duty to support the one you feel is best qualified for the job. VOTE on April 14.

SPOTLIGHT

Two Seniors From Etowah Share Collegian's Spotlight

When it comes to all-round dependability, sincerity, and congeniality, you can't find two who "fit the bill" any better than Sarah Anderson and Joe Ford. These two Etowah County natives are both seniors, a little shy, very modest, and popular personalities.

Sarah is a graduate of Gaston High School. She was president of both the high school and the county Beta Clubs. She was also valedictorian of her graduating class. Sarah was quite interested in the 4-H program at her school. In 1956, she won the award for the Girls' Best 4-H Record for the state. This entitled her to a trip to Chicago as a delegate to the National Convention. It was this convention which finally decided Sarah that she should make home economics her future.

Sarah enrolled at Jacksonville in the fall of 1956 and began to prepare for her future as a Home Economics major and Science minor. This ambitious girl has established a remarkable record for herself. She served as SGA representative for the sophomore class for the summer session, and has contributed her share to any project or club she has been a part of. Because she takes her studies seriously and has the high-level of intelligence we all envy her. Sarah was selected for membership in Kappa Delta Epsilon and Kappa Delta Pi, both educational fraternities which emphasize high academic standards. She is also a member of Phi Mu Chi Beta, the Science Club. As a member of the Leone Cole Home Economics Club, Sarah has put her every effort into its success and advancement. She has served the local club as reporter, and she is presently serving as state corresponding secretary and treasurer. This job couldn't be in more capable and determined hands.

The July graduation will see Sarah accomplish her degree in Home Economics Education. The world of home economics will gain a grand and constant worker.

Joe will reveal nothing about his high school days except that he graduated from Gadsden High School in 1955 and that he participated in football and baseball. The COLLEGIAN feels there is much more to it, but we will keep his secret!

Joe is a senior majoring in Business Administration and minoring in Economics. He claims to be a member of Scabbard and Blade, Future

Business Leaders of America, Company Commander for "C" Company of the R.O.T.C. unit, and vice-president of the senior class. We have no reason to doubt that his claim is true and that he is one of the most worthy participants in each of these activities. We know that because he is outstanding as a student, Joe was selected for Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. However, we know that Joe is that ever-ready, modest, and always dependable guy who plays third base for the Gamecock baseball team. Joe's ability coupled with his fine qualities of good sportsmanship have made him a favorite with the team. The fact can be readily noted because the team selected him as one of the captains last year when the team was re-organized, and they have again bestowed this honor upon Joe for this season. Joe's popularity doesn't end with the team, however. He is one of the most widely known persons on the campus because he has a ready smile and friendly greeting that are characteristic of both Joe and Jacksonville.

After Joe graduates from Jacksonville, he will serve a two-year tour of duty with the Army. His future beyond that point is not determined, except for the detail that he will be married to Miss Judy Wells, a student at Auburn. Joe is the one to succeed by leaps and bounds in whatever he undertakes.

To Sarah and Joe The COLLEGIAN would like to say, "We have thoroughly enjoyed knowing you as students. You have laid the foundation for a very successful life by your cooperative spirit and enthusiasm at Jacksonville — May it never end!"

quite frequently with his family. First to Colorado for a few years, and then ending up in California at the age of five. What time wasn't spent going to school or helping his father repair automobiles, was spent arguing with his mother who, inasmuch as she was a piano teacher, was trying to convince him that he should study music. She eventually made him understand that he was meant for music; but it was not until after a siege of saxophone, trumpet and even Banjo, that he finally reverted back to the piano. There he stayed . . . not realizing that he was destined to become one of the foremost contributors to modern music.

Charles has served as president of the Baptist Students Union for the past two years. He has been a member of SGA for two years, and he served as treasurer of SGA this year. He has been featured in "Spotlight", received a certificate of achievement, and was chosen for "Who's Who".

He says, "It is not the plan of Charles McCain to make any material promises, but to set 100% satisfaction of the students as my sole project. I pledge cooperation, earnest effort and sincere desire to promote any project which will improve the campus."

Don McMillan: Don, who will serve as vice-president, is a sophomore from Brent, Ala. His major is Math and his minors are Physics and Physical Education. Don says, "The main thing I want to see accomplished is a training schedule, in the newly-planned chow hall, for athletes at Jacksonville. I would like to see a huge bulletin board erected on the outside. Most of all I want to aid the president in carrying out his platform."

Tressie Smith: Tressie is a junior from Tarrant. Her major is Business Education and her minor in English. She has been active in Student NEA, Kappa Delta Epsilon, Sigma Tau Delta, and BSU. She served as president of Daugette Hall, treasurer of the sophomore class, and secretary of FBLA. She is a junior class favorite, and was selected for "Spotlight".

Tressie promises to do her best to keep accurate records, and to carry out such other duties as her office requires. She pledges to work cooperatively with the other elected officers for the general welfare of the student body.

Janice Williams: Janice is a Physical Education major with a double minor in English and Music. A junior, she is from Roanoke. She has participated in the Wesley Foundation, the WWA, the college chorus, and is vocalist with the dance band. She has participated and won in several talent shows, and she recently pledged to Delta Omicron. She served as a cheerleader as a freshman, and is currently serving in the SGA as social chairman for the junior class.

Janice promises, "To do my best to carry out my duties in the office of secretary and to work with the other members of the student body if I am elected."

Gerald Dupree: Gerald's major is Business Administration and his minor is Economics. He is from Huntsville, but he is now residing in Jacksonville with his wife, Sarah. He is popular as a member and next year's captain of the basketball team; shortstop for the baseball team in 1958 and student assistant to Coach Lovrich this year; is a member of the Scabbard and Blade; participates in intramural softball, the FBLA, and his church activities.

Gerald says, "I plan to do one of, if not the best jobs of treasurer that Jacksonville State has ever had. I will cooperate with any individual, club, or organization that may wish to introduce some point to the SGA. I will guarantee that the job will be done with utmost efficiency, and will do everything that is within my power for the students of Jax State."

Franklin Estes: Franklin is a junior from Piedmont. His major is mathematics, and his minor chemistry. Franklin has been a cheerleader, is a member of the ROTC Drill Team, has served as SGA representative of the Sophomore class, and was president of the sophomore class during the summer session. Franklin also served as one of the student proprietors of Chat-em Inn.

He promises, "To keep accurate records represent the students, to WORK HARD, and to strive to the best of my ability to carry out the duties of my office, if elected."

Bill Lazenby: Bill claims Eclectic as his home. He is a junior and his major and minor are Music Education. Since he transferred from Southwest Mississippi Junior College to Jacksonville, Bill has been active as a member of Phi Mu Alpha, the Ushers Club, as treasurer of Kappa Phi Kappa, and as secretary of the Marching Band.

Bill's main objective in office is to cooperate fully with the student, the SGA, and the administration for the betterment of Jacksonville State. He pledges to uphold the duties and purpose of his office, and to do all he can to make the year 1959-60 one of the most prosperous in SGA history.

Bob Taylor: Bob, a junior, is from Remlap, Ala. He is a triple minor in English, Accounting, and Economics. Besides his numerous studies, Bob finds time to serve as reporter for the junior class, as treas-

International Unit Picks New Officers

Officers of the International House Program were elected here Monday. Each semester, the leaders will be changed in the International House in order to develop the potentialities in leadership in the foreign students as well as in the American students who participate in the program.

Rosalio Wences from Mexico was elected president; Jeffery Smyth of England and Wanda Gilliland from Gallant, were elected co-chairmen of the programs which are presented to various clubs; and Kooros Hemmati from Iran was elected secretary-treasurer. These officers will serve until the end of this semester. Dr. James Jones is the International House program director.

Something Added

The Business Discussion Group has undertaken, as a school project, a student directory that is now completed and will go on sale Monday, March 6, in front of the Grab for the unbelievably low price of twenty-five cents.

This directory should prove to be very helpful and beneficial to both the students and faculty members alike. It will give the students' names, their classification, their major in school and their local and home address. Also included in the directory will be the name address and phone number of all the faculty and staff members. Additional to the above it will have the phone number of all the buildings and offices and a listing of all the organizations on the campus.

The supply is limited, so be sure and get your's Monday.

Election Of Officers

The weekly meeting of the Business Discussion Group, which was just recently recognized as an organization by the SGA, elected officers last Wednesday. The new officers are, Charles Sweat, president; Frank Atkins, vice-president; Charles Roberston, treasurer; Don Adwell, reporter; and Arnold Parrish, secretary.

Pledges Honored

A tea was given for the new pledges to Kappa Delta Epsilon on March 30 in the President's Lounge.

Of the eleven girls pledged five attended. The five pledges who attended were Mary Jean Ingram, Wanda Gilliland, Gay Nell Miller, Shelby Tankersley, and Ann Aldrup.

Plans are underway for the Initiation Banquet which will within the next few weeks.

urer for the FBLA, as manager for the intramural league, and as a member of the Business Discussion Group.

Bob's promise is this: "If elected as treasurer of SGA, I promise to do my best to uphold the duties of SGA. I will feel that it is a great honor to serve the students of Jacksonville in this capacity and I would appreciate that honor."

That's how it sounds political-wise around Jacksonville. The election date is set for Tuesday, April 15. Every candidate would like to urge each student to weigh the values of each platform, and then vote his conviction—but vote! Only you can determine the winners—who will it be?

Beatnik Boswell's Column

(If you want to understand this column start at the end . . . if you want to be different start reading at the beginning . . . if you had rather be likable throw away the newspaper.)

Hello again, my dear gullible supporters. I understand I have won many enemies and lost a few of my followers to Beatnikology with my last column. I would like to take this time to answer a few of the questions I have been asked about my last column. Yes . . . I shall continue writing that "trash;" No . . . I do not like arsenic in my coffee . . . Yes, I am not crazy . . . and no, I really am not from Mars. One must admit that we beatniks are very controversial people—some would like to see us dead — others would like to kill us. Actually we are not too bad. Just because we sleep on bare mattresses, talk in rhymes ("strictly with it and can't quit it"), eat raw hamburger, smoke non-filter cigarettes, and chew opium-flavored chewing gum and go to cock-fights . . . that don't make us bad.

Nobody loves us Beatniks! Just the other day I took a walk down West Mountain Avenue and a dog ran out and bit me . . . I kept on walking. A little later a woman ran out and bit me and then a man and then a baby ran out and bit me . . . everybody ran out and bit me and then I growled back and they said I behaved like an animal—nobody loves us beatniks! I should have bit 'em back, but I left my plates in the dormitory and when I got back to the dormitory . . . someone had stolen my plates . . . but that's okay, I'll catch them . . . just wait . . . I'll see my smile on someone else's face and then wham . . . I'll run out and gum 'em! Then I discovered the reason why I had no friends and nobody loved me. My best friend Alfred E. Neuman of comic book fame said that I should see my doctor about halitosis. I didn't even know I had a halitosis and when I found out the awful truth that halitosis was a beautiful word for a bad breath . . . I was bewitched, bothered and bewildered. Words cannot express my grief . . . I have returned to my room with a heavy heart and a fifth of Scotch determined to cure this madness called halitosis. In my moment of grief, I composed an Ode to Halitosis and I would like now to share it with my fellow readers . . . thusly:

Oh, Halitosis, I have tried to rid myself of you,
I have tried the latest methods and Listerine too,
Everything . . . Colgate, Gleam,
Dentyne, and Pepodent,
Nothing helps, I'm doomed . . . I have even tried Spearmint,
Must I always go through life
with breath that smells,
Like the Ocean depths' nasty oyster shells?
Listerine and Colgate, and Clorophyll and Juicy Fruit,
Pepodent and Retsin, and GI-7
Gardol and slime of Flute,
Spare me now from this horrible faith of a breath that smells
. . . Like nasty oyster shells!

Isn't that wonderful . . . but to you who suffer as I do you know the sadness which lies within these immortal lines . . . if you non-sufferers have any suggestions, please forward them to Beatnik Boswell's Better Cures for Halitosis in care of West Mountain Avenue. Thank you.

Well . . . as all good things must come to a close, so must this column. But don't forget spring is here and everyone will be repeating these immortal lines given to us by Sir Walter Scott: "Spring is here . . . Grass is riz . . . I wonder where the flowers is?"

So until next time this is Beatnik Boswell asking you to look in on his column next week end . . . What do you mean you can't gargle?

BOSWELL.

Biology — Two tape worms were discoursing on the probability of various delectable items on the menu, and finally settled on pedigreed

SPORTS SHORTS

Spring training has been quite impressive here at Jacksonville State. The spirit of the team is unusually high. The team shows more desire to develop into a good team than any Gamecock squad in recent years.

The Gamecocks lost two players from last year's squad. This means that nine out of eleven starters will return this year. This is the main reason Jax State fans can hardly wait until fall to see the Gamecocks in action.

Even with scores of old timers around, there are many new faces on the gridiron this spring. Some of these boys are fighting hard for a starting position.

Bobby Johnson, a transfer from the University of Alabama, is a sophomore tackle from Centre who has really looked great this spring. Bobby has the size, ability and, most of all, the desire to make Coach Salls a top-notch performer.

Another newcomer making a determined bid for a starting position is Tommy Maddox, a transfer from the University of Chattanooga. Tommy, a big boy from Albertville, is playing second-string center at the present time and will team with J. E. Phillips to give the Gamecocks a well-manned center position.

Jack Gauldin, a huge tackle from Oxford, has joined the Gamecocks this spring to add depth, experience and weight to the tackle positions manned by Glasgow and Whaley.

From the land of sunshine and oranges comes Bill Kuykendall, an end and tackle. Bill is another boy literally bubbling over with the desire to play some football for the Gamecocks. Bill, an All-State gridiron star for Winter Garden (Fla.) High School, has been hampered all spring with a bad ankle, but look for big things out of this lad next fall.

The appearance of Ray Gentle and Arlin Carter gives the Gamecocks more speed and power to a group of talent-blessed backs. These boys show great potential. Both of these fellows have a great chance of landing a starting berth when fall rolls around.

The addition of these new faces along with several other newcomers has brought smiles to the faces of Coaches Salls, Roberson and Wedgeworth.

SECOND GUESSING

It is past time for something to be said of the fine, outstanding, exquisite manner in which Coach Lovrich and the Jax State baseball team represented our school on their spring holiday tour to Louisiana. The Jax nine lost the first two games to Southeastern Louisiana on costly mistakes. The Jaxmen came back like Gangbusters in their last two encounters, however, with victories over Northwestern Louisiana. We regret the full details of the trip being omitted from the previous issue of The COLLEGIAN, but lack of space made it difficult to use all the material.

Speaking of lack of space . . . it has almost reached its limit for the week, so let's look at a quick rundown of spring training now in progress in the College Bowl.

IMPROVED BACK: Ronnie Horton.

IMPROVED LINEMEN: Grover Whaley, Jerald Halpin, Bob Johnson.

FASTEST BACKS: Bill Nichols, Jerry Duke, Ray Gentle and Bill Kinzy.

FASTEST LINEMEN: J. E. Phillips, Ted Boozer, Roy Fulmer, Grover Whaley.

TOP PASSERS: Harold Shankles, Rayford Tally and Jim Mayben.

Bill Kinzy, a 175-pound halfback from Buchanan, Ga., has shown great desire and determination during the spring drills. It has been a real hot battle between shifty Ray Gentle and Kinzy for the starting right halfback position. As this goes to press, Wild Bill Kinzy is running in the No. 1 position.

Bill was an All-State halfback at Buchanan, Ga. High. He transferred to Jacksonville after playing two years at Northeast Mississippi Junior College.

Attend the J-Day game on April 9.

Interest High In Intramural Team Games

Intramural got off to a great start last week as the Bobcats won a thriller from the Vets, by 4-5 count. Bob Taylor's boys were behind 2-0 going into the inning which they exploded with four big runs ahead to stay. Mr. Manners had two hits to pace the Bobcats.

Manners was also the winning pitcher as he gave up only four hits. Ackers also had two hits for the winners while Rex Provence and Carter Mays also hit safely. Jim Hodges was the loser. Jim gave up six hits. He walked one and struck out five. Walker, Keahey, Dunlap and Hodges collected the Vets four hits. The Rockets behind the two hits pitching of Calhoun defeated the Duces 1-0. The one-run came in the third inning. O'Dell and Gibbs collected the only hits for the loser. Kidd, Baker and Calhoun collected a hit apiece for the winners. Tommy Autry was the losing pitcher.

The Jolters turned back Old Pannell 7-5. Ford, Davidson and Myer collected the only hits the winners got but they took advantage of nine bases on balls and several errors to assure their victory. Mitchell, Higginbotham and Wells collected Old Pannell's hits. Charles Myer, the Jolter center-fielder, collected the season's first homerun in the third inning with one man on base. Posey was the winning pitcher for the Jolters. Carl Merrill was credited with the loss.

JAX STATE GUARDS—Three reasons why Jacksonville State is expecting to have a great football season in '59 are these rugged tackles: Grover Whaley, Wedowee; Bob Johnson, Centre; and Jim Glasgow, Birmingham.

'J-Day' Game Completes Gamecocks' Spring Drills

Climaxing spring training of the Jax State Gamecocks football squad will be the intra-squad game, scheduled for Thursday, April 9. The S. G. A. will sponsor the awarding of a trophy to the "Most Outstanding Back," and "Most Outstanding Lineman," selected by judges made up of faculty members and several students. Proceeds of the game will go to the "J" Club.

Coach Salls has made several changes in the "Game," "Go," and "Cock" teams. Some players have been promoted and some have been shifted from one position to another.

Max Bass has been moved from center to guard, but Coach Salls will still be counting on him to strengthen the center position.

Charley Baker has been shifted from tackle on the "Cock" team to guard on the "Go" team. Duan Mitchum and

FULMER

Baker make up the No. 2 guards behind Grover Whaley and M. G. Hodges.

Roy Fulmer has been shifted from guard to tackle. Roy, who was an All-State guard at Talladega, has proven himself one of the most consistent linemen to ever play at Jacksonville. Fulmer, 210, and Jim Glasgow, 230, are the No. 1 tackles.

Players listed on the injured list are: Guard Ed Neura, Halfback Bill Kuykendall, Halfback Ronnie Horton, Tackle Mickey Grimmit, and End Bill Price. Ed Neura and Ronnie Horton were having a very fine spring training until they were sidelined with injuries.

The Gamecocks have a fourth unit, the "Raiders," coached by Herschel O'Dell. The "Raiders" is made up of freshmen, and young football players working their way up to the No. 1 unit.

Jax Netters Bow To Howard, Huntsville

The Jax State tennis team has had a difficult time getting on the winning streak. Probably the toughest opponents on the season's schedule have been faced at the beginning of the season. The netters have lost to Huntingdon, 6-1; Huntsville Tennis Club, 8-1; Howard College, 9-0; and Redstone Arsenal.

The only winners on the Jax squad are Stacy Shaw, with a victory over a Huntingdon opponent, and Frank Atkins, with a victory over Martie Banks of the Huntsville Tennis Club.

Mike Livingston, No. 1 man for Jacksonville, has been catching all the fireworks which the No. 1 man usually gets. However, Mike looked in excellent form even in defeat against Don McDougal, No. 1 man for Howard, who is considered one of the top tennis players in the south.

JAX BOWS TO HOWARD

Don McDougal (H) defeated Mike Livingston (J) 6-3, 7-5.

Carlton Cook (H) defeated Tommy Bartlett (J) 6-0, 6-0.

Max Gartman (H) defeated Stacy Shaw (J) 6-0, 6-1.

Donnie Evans (H) defeated Buddy Patty (J) 6-0, 6-1.

Jack Wilson (H) defeated John McDougal (J) 6-0, 6-4.

Gur Fikes (H) defeated Frank Atkins (J) 6-4, 6-2.

Coach Lovrich and co-captains, Joe Ford and Don Traylor

Jax Baseball Team To Open Home Schedule On Tuesday

"Play Ball!" This familiar cry will ring out tomorrow afternoon as the Gamecocks square off against Berry in the first baseball game of the year here at Jacksonville.

Coach Lovrich took his squad down to Louisiana during the spring vacation, where the Gamecocks lost their first two games to a powerful Southeastern College nine. The Jaxmen then won three in a row from Northwestern Louisiana College. This past weekend the Gamecocks journeyed up into our neighboring state of Tennessee to play Tennessee Wesleyan and Maryville.

Finally the Gamecocks will play at home and we will all get the opportunity of seeing this year's great squad in action. Tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock every student enrolled in Jacksonville State College should journey over to the mill field and cheer the Gamecocks to victory.

Where is the Jacksonville baseball diamond? This is a question that has been asked many times this past week. To help you find the field, sports enthusiasts on the campus will place markers from the campus to the baseball diamond. All you have to do is get into your car, go out the exit in front of Bibb Graves, turn right and follow the arrows to an afternoon of fine baseball.

Coach Lovrich has not announced the starting pitcher for tomorrow's game but it will probably be Bob O'Neil or Marvin Vaughn. Other starters will probably be Don Traylor, 1st base; Floyd Wilkes, 2nd base; Joe Ford, 3rd base; and Hank O'Neil, shortstop. Bob Ford will be behind the plate. In the outfield Coach Lovrich will call on Bud McCarty, Jim Emfinger and Bill Bowen, Lefty Bollinger or Phillips.

Come on out tomorrow and back the Gamecocks.
